WEEKLY NEWS FOR HOME.

The Overseas China Mail.

It is published to suit the Department of each British and Foreign Mail Steamship for Europe. It contains special Commercial Intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily Mail.

The Overseas China Mail, by the convenience of its form and the accuracy and fulness of its reports, has long been popular with residents who wish to send home a weekly digest of the news of Hongkong and the Far East. Circulating, as it does, among nearly all the old China hands at Home, and also among residents at the Treaty Ports and in the interior, it offers special advantages to advertisers.

The Overseas China Mail will be regularly posted from the Office of the Overseas China Mail, on their addresses being forwarded to the Office.

Subscription: For Annual, £1.00, postage, £1.00. For Single Copy, 6d.

Office: Overseas China Mail, Hongkong.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

報日字華

(Wah Tsai Yat Po).

THIS paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Five Dollars per annum, delivered in Hongkong, or Extra Dollars Forty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the Chinese community, amongst whom also are to be found the customers and advertisers necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The proprietors, having their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, Peking, Shanghai, Canton, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation.

The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore of great value, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of them.

The field open to a paper of this description—conducted by native efforts, but progressive and active in tone—is almost limitless. It is on the one hand a Chinese and Chinese interest, and on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains editorial, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and all the news of the day. Subscription orders for the above may be sent to
